Latest Navan Connect collaboration provides even more ways to manage expenses and payments via “BYOC” virtual Card integration

PALO ALTO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Today, Navan, the leading all-in-one business travel and expense management platform, announced a new integration with American Express that enables American Express U.S. Business and Corporate Card Members to instantly create unique virtual Cards for travel booked on the Navan Travel platform via Navan Connect. To support and foster this integration, Navan is participating in the American Express Sync Commercial Partner Program.

“We’re thrilled to join forces with American Express to give our customers access to the control, enhanced security, and cash flow management that come with using an American Express virtual Card,” said Michael Sindicich, President, Navan. “Navan and American Express are both obsessed with delivering amazing user experiences that optimize efficiency and savings. The integration helps us provide our signature end-to-end experience and increased value to our customers that use American Express for their Card needs.”

Combined with the end-to-end Navan T&E solution, the Navan-American Express Sync integration offers:

- Improved reconciliation. Speed up month-end close with automated reconciliation, all while earning the rewards of your American Express Card¹.
- Proactive spending policies. Create unique virtual Cards with built-in spending policies that make managing travel spend simple for finance teams.
- Real-time expense management. Companies have full visibility into every virtual Card expense the instant it happens with pending and cleared transactions that automatically appear in the Navan Expense dashboard to enable finance leaders to uncover savings opportunities — while keeping budgets and forecasts up-to-date.
- With Navan there are even more reasons to love your Card. American Express Card Members can earn the rewards of their eligible American Express Card when they use on-demand virtual Cards for travel payments.

Navan Connect’s “Bring Your Own Card” functionality enables businesses to enjoy the benefits of the travel and expense solution employees love while keeping the benefits of the company’s existing bank and corporate card partner. The innovative card-link technology has recorded over $1 billion in transaction volume since January 2024.
