

TripActions Opens Austin, TX Office

April 14, 2021

Located in center of critical talent hub, new sales office to bolster expansion

PALO ALTO, CA, April 14, 2021 — TripActions, the leading, cloud-based travel and spend management platform, today announced the opening of its Austin, Texas, office. This is the second Texas office location for TripActions, with the other located in Dallas. The launch of the new Austin office supports the company's expansion plans as it draws in further talent from the thriving tech hub.

Located in downtown Austin, the office will open with a 25-person team with plans to double the headcount over the course of the year. The opening of its Austin office follows TripActions' recent $155 million Series E upround funding announcement, led by existing investor Andreessen Horowitz; Addition, founded by Lee Fixel; and investor Elad Gil. The Austin location will be a dedicated sales office, supporting TripActions and TripActions Liquid™, the company's modern expense and spend management platform.

"Austin hosts one of the best talent ecosystems in tech. We are planting our flag in Austin and plan to make it a center of gravity in the coming years for our growing sales organization," says Carlos Delatorre, TripActions Chief Revenue Officer. "Between the world-class universities and the burgeoning tech community, Austin is the place to find diverse and ambitious talent."

The Austin office joins TripActions offices in Palo Alto, CA; San Francisco, CA; New York City, NY; Seattle, WA; Dallas, TX; London, England; Amsterdam, Netherlands; and Sydney, Australia.

The Austin office location is open as of the week of April 12, 2021; however, the company plans to continue its hybrid-working model for the near future. To see current job openings, visit: <https://tripactions.com/careers>
